

Doxa Church

Members' Affirmation

I believe in one God, who has eternally existed in three persons as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

I affirm that Jesus of Nazareth is the Son of God who became also a man, who was born of a virgin, lived a perfect life, died on a cross as a sacrifice for sins, rose bodily from the dead on the third day, ascended to heaven at the right hand of God, and will one day come again to judge the world in righteousness and to set up a kingdom that will never end.

I believe in the necessity of repentance and faith alone in Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sin and for eternal life, and I have personally repented and put my faith in Christ alone.

I affirm that the sixty---six books of the Old and New Testaments, commonly referred to as the Holy Bible, are the inspired, inerrant, and infallible word of God in their original manuscripts.

I commit to pursue holy and godly conduct in light of the salvation I have received in Christ and according to the commands of Scripture.

I agree to readily and humbly receive instruction from the word of God and to submit to the spiritual authority of the elders of Doxa Church under the headship of Jesus Christ through his word.

I commit to employ my spiritual gift in serving others in the church so that God may be glorified in Jesus Christ.
